Continuation of FD-302 of CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE, On 9/27/91, Page 2

On August 22, 1991 [redacted] again returned to [redacted] residence in [redacted] Arizona. While in town [redacted] made a number of telephone calls on his mobile telephone to various people. [redacted] his trip to the Soldier of Fortune convention was very unproductive and that the convention had gone downhill. [redacted] indicated that not many people had shown up at the convention and the Civilian Material Assistance Group did not have any hospitality room at the convention as they have in years past.
